(a) whether due cognizance of case Nos. (xxxii) and (xxxVi) as reported at pages 56 and 59 of the Central Vigilance Commission Report for 1984 has 'beeₙ taken; and

(b) what steps have been taken to check delaying tactics adopted by the Railway authorities s₀ that advice of thₑ Central Vigilance Commission is given due importance?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF RAILWAYS (SHRIMADHAVRAO SCINDIA); (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) No delaying tactics are adopted by the Department of Railways in im plementing the advice of Central Vigi lance Commission. In fact, a regular review of all CVC cases is made at different levels to ensure that their advice iₛ implemented as quickly as possible. In almost all cases, the ad vice of Central Vigilence Commission is acted upon. Only in rare and excep tional cases, is the advice of Central Vigilance Commission to initiate dis ciplinary proceedings not followed. Present cases on paragraph (xxxii) of Central Vigilance Commission Report of 1984, is one such exceptional ins tance. In cases, where Central Vigilance Commission's advice is not followed, detailed reasons for disagreement are furnished to Central Vigilance Commission, and approval of Department of Personnel and Training is invariably sought.

Consumption of high speed diesel by Railways

23%. SHRI T. CHANDRASEKHAR REDDY: Will the Minister of TRANSPORT be pleased to state:

(a) the among of high speed diesel consumed by the Railways during the last three years;

(b) the amount of high speed diesel imported during the said period alongwith the foreign exchange spent thereon exclusively for Railways; and

(c) to what extent there will be economy in the consumption of diesel as a result of electrification of projects during the next three years?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF RAILWAYS (SHRI MADHARAO SCINDIA): (a) The estimated amount of high speed diesel consumed be the Railways during the last three years is indicated below:—

Year	Quantity in Kilo-litres
1982-83 . . .	1239432
1983-84 . . .	1326440
1984-85 . ^ .	1378730

(b) Railways do not import any high speed diesel oil but procure it through Director General of supplies and Disposals from existing Oil Com panies in India. Payment for such purchases is made by Railways only in Indian currency.

(c) No overall reduction in the con sumption of high speed diesel oil by the Railways is anticipated due to electrification projects during the next three years as the diesel loco motives released from electrified routes as well as additional new diesel locos will be utilised for progressive dieselisation of steam services and anticipated additional traffic.

Allotment of bookstalls to unemployed graduates

2398. SHRI (MOLANA) ASRARUL HAQ:

SHRl PRITHIBI MAJHI:

. Will the Minister of TRANSPORT be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government have been encouraging Zonal Railways for regu lar allotment of bookstalls/Counter-tables/troMies to AH. Wheeler & Co. only since I960;

(b) whether it fe a fact that they held 260 such stalls in tne year 1961 which increased to 394 stalls and un-
, limited number of small stalls and trollies' till the year 1984; and

(c) whether there is any proposal to allot bookstalls to unemployed gra duates oin these stations where A.H. Wheeler <3^Co. are holding bookstalls except new platforms according to the policy of Government?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF RAILWAYS (SHRI MADHAVRAO SCINDIA): (a) to (c) Prior to i960, Mis. A.H. Wheeler & Co. had exclusive rights for running bookstali$_s$ over an entire Railway Op over large areas of a' Railway. This resulted in monopoly rights of the Company to open bookstalls and to sell books, periodicals etc. over an entire Railway or over any area. Bookstalls could, therefore, not be licensed to other contractors even at stations-where M's. A.H. Wheeler & Co. were not having bookstalls. Th$_e$ matter was examined in I960 and the exclusive rights over an entire Railway oi' a major part thereof was reduced to only 'Sole right' at a station where they were holding contract of bookstalls. These 'Sole selling rights' have further been modified from time to time to accommodate othe$_r$ Bookstall contractors, especially Unemployed Graduates. At present, M|s. A.H. Wheeler & Co. (P) Ltd. have the sole .selling rights on the platforms of the stations where they are holding bookstalls, including the platforms replaced due to conver-sion of gauge. All additional platforms constructed on or after 1-1-76 (except those constructed in replacement of the existing platforms due to gauge conversion) are available for ' allotment to eligible categories including unemployed graduates. As on 30-6-1962, M/s. A. H. Wheeler & Co. held 330 bookstalls and at present they are holding 391 Nos. of bookstalls.
